The Fort Mason Foundation, a privately-funded nonprofit organization, is engaged in renovating surplus military buildings at Fort Mason, headquarters of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. The Foundation administers Fort Mason Center which is located on the Bay between Aquatic Park and the Marina Green. In less than six years, the Center has become a national model for low-cost community-responsive urban parks.

We invite you to bring your conferences, classes, performances, meetings or benefits to Fort Mason. Space for suitable activities is available for a nominal daily or hourly fee. Enjoy the pleasure of teaching, working, or performing in this unusual national park location. Call 441-5706 for booking appointments and information.

WELCOME TO THE SF ARTS FESTIVAL

"We are very pleased the San Francisco Art Commission has chosen the Fort Mason Center as the location for its 37th Arts Festival. Fort Mason Center has provided a showcase for some of the outstanding community arts and cultural events in the Bay Area during the past six years. The San Francisco Arts Festival represents a significant milestone in our effort to develop the Center into a facility used by the diverse talent residing in the Bay Area."

–Marc Kasky
Executive Director, Fort Mason Center

The outstanding contributions of individuals in advancing their artistic discipline and enhancing the cultural vitality of the Bay Area are acknowledged each year by the San Francisco Art Commission. Winners of the 11 "Awards of Honor" will receive commendations during opening day ceremonies of the 37th Arts Festival, which begins at noon on June 24. This year's festival location is Pier 2 of Fort Mason Center and admission is $1.

The 1983 award winners are:
– Warren Callister/Architecture
– Michael Smuin/Dance
– George Lucas/Film
– Ernest J. Gaines/Literature
– Winifred Baker/Music
– Nathan Oliveira/Painting
– Louise M. Davis/Patron
– Pirkle Jones/Photography
– Kathan Brown/Printmaking
– Mark di Suvero/Sculpture
– Peter Coyote/Theatre

There will be many new facets and highlights to the Festival this year. Over 40 trained volunteer docent/guides will conduct tours of the Arts Festival for those patrons who desire to learn more about contemporary art and the artists whose work will be exhibited. One of the focal points of this year's festival is John Wehrle's mural-in-progress. Using the Maybeck Pavilion of the Palace of Fine Arts as the subject, Wehrle and his assistants will work throughout the 10 day Festival creating a mural in the public eye. Visitors will also find unique and fine crafts in the special craft sales gallery. Demonstrations have been scheduled throughout the Arts Festival, making it possible for the public to view the creation of fine crafts and meet the artists who have helped to make this area's reputation for excellence in the crafts field. Daily demonstrations will be conducted in the central plaza of Pier 2, celebrating traditional arts such as Ikebana, weaving, calligraphy, beading, silversmithing, and more. A special art exhibit featuring the work of over 30 disabled artists will also be displayed. In addition, there will be video and film programs, a display of architectural drawings, a show of etchings and monoprints by the Fort Mason Printmakers, a Heritage Crafts Gallery focusing on crafts made by SF's senior artisans, paintings and photographs of the SF cable car, an art exhibit by the members of the Columbia Park Boy's Club, a display of edible art, and a selection of banners made by Bay Area students will also be on exhibit.

If this is not enough to capture your imagination, there will be opportunities to hear a wide variety of music and to see dance and theatrical performances. Presentations will take place each afternoon from 2–4pm and special programs for children will be offered each Sunday. For more information call 558-2963.

DISCOVER SEA CAMP 1983

Watching frilly sea anemones clustered in a tide pool, learning to tie mysterious sailors' knots, visiting a lighthouse and historic ships, meeting a friendly sea lion pup and setting up an aquarium are just some of the experiences your child can have at the Oceanic Society's Sea Camp this summer.

Sea Camp Director Ann Dauben will lead a team of trained instructors/counselors in providing children, ages 8–12, with a new awareness of the marine environment through a unique and fun-filled day-camp agenda. Science and art projects, crafts, games and visits by guest speakers will take place in the classroom at Fort Mason Center. Field trips to the Marine Mammal Center, the SF Bay model, Fort Point, the Steinhart Aquarium and the Maritime Museum will add to your child's understanding of marine biology and the natural history of the Bay Area. And this summer adventure will be completed with a camping trip near the beach.

Sea Camp sessions run for two weeks each and begin on June 20, July 11 & 25 and August 8. Each group will meet Monday through Friday from 9:30am to 5pm and the cost is $175.

If you are interested in enrolling your child in Sea Camp 1983, please call Ann Dauben at the Oceanic Society offices—441-5970.

A SPECTACULAR MEETING PLACE-Fort Mason Conference Center Plays Host To Nationwide Groups

"It's the best place in town," says manager Alan Davis of the Conference Center at Fort Mason. "The rates are very competitive, the view is spectacular and parking is free and abundant." His enthusiasm is reflected by the number of events (40–50) booked at the Conference Center in Building A each month. "We project a positive image of our facilities because we are proud of them," states Davis. "In fact, perhaps as many as 50% of our clients book the Conference Center before they've even seen it!"

The myriad events at the Conference Center represent many interests and mirror the purpose we at Fort Mason Center have worked to achieve from the onset. Recently it has been the site of a series of concerts by the Sonante Woodwind Quintet, a fundraiser for a Latino childcare center, real estate courses, the 6th Annual Imogen Cunningham Photography Awards, and a wine tasting sponsored by Crane & Kelly. There have been meetings of the ACLU and The American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, an exhibit by the SF Quilters Guild, a conference by the Ca. Association of Law Librarians, plus parties, dances, receptions, trade shows and more. This month the events at the Conference Center will include a lecture by The Lawyers' Alliance for Nuclear Arms Control, a benefit auction for the AMC Cancer Research Center, the screening of an award winning film and a 4th of July party. Additionally, large corporations and organizations such as Bank of Ca., Safeway, Pacific Arts & Letters, Xerox and B'nai B'rith have found the Conference Center to be an excellent facility in which to hold meetings & conventions.

"As a non-profit organization, most of Fort Mason Center's revenues come from rentals," adds Davis. "My greatest satisfaction is in knowing that this money will be channeled back into the Center so we can continue to upgrade our facilities and provide the kinds of programs, activities and services the community needs."

Besides the great view, low rates and easy parking the Conference Center is located close to the many restaurants, shops and points of interest in the Marina and Fisherman's Wharf areas and those of Fort Mason itself. The Conference Center has several rooms, one suitable for large events, and the others appropriate for smaller meetings, seminars and exhibits. A portable stage, blackout curtains and a sound system are available for use. The facility is located near public transportation lines and is wheelchair accessible.

If you or your organization are interested in finding out more about the Conference Center, please contact Alan Davis at 441-5706.

FAMILY FUN AT FORT MASON CENTER

The month of July promises to be full of action for children and their parents thanks to the Pickle Family Circus, the Golden Gate National Recreation Area and Ray Jason.

Everyone from Grandma down to baby will be caught up in the magic of the Pickle Family Cirus, scheduled to perform at Upper Fort Mason on July 2, 3 & 4 from Noon to 3pm. For 12 years the Pickle Family has followed the traditions of European circus and American Vaudeville by bringing feats of skill, drama and comedy to their enchanted audiences. Jugglers and clowns, trampolines, tumblers and trapeze create a one-ring circus sure to delight the young and the young at heart. The Pickle Family's 5 piece band performs before the show and highlights every act with music from jazz to John Phillip Sousa. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for seniors and children under 12.

On July 4, The Golden Gate National Recreation Area will sponsor the annual fireworks festivities at Crissy Field. Activities begin at 2pm with the procession by the 6th Army Band followed by cannon/flag salutes to the individual states. Day-long musical entertainment will be provided on two stages by: Hearts on Fire, Dick Oxtot's Golden Age Jazz Band, Good Ole Persons, J.C. Burris, and Queen Ida and the Bon Temps Zydeco Band. For children there will be juggling, games, puppet shows and singing; and as soon as it is dark the dazzling fireworks display will complete the celebration. Refreshments will be available and the Park Service recommends that you arrive early for parking and bring warm clothing.

Everyone gets into the act at Ray Jason's 12th Anniversary Show on July 23 at Pier 2. Master of Ceremonies Scott Beach will introduce such performers as singer/songwriter Steve Seskin, hand balancer and dog trainer Dana Smith, physical comedian Geoff Hoyle and, of course, juggler Ray Jason. This popular show is FREE and a fun way for the whole family to spend an evening together. Bring a blanket to sit on, a picnic to eat and dress warmly. The show starts at 7pm and limited parking is available.

We hope that you and your family will enjoy the summer fun at Fort Mason and the Golden Gate National Recreation Area this month. If you need further information about these events see the daily listings for phone numbers.
